TEA!

JUST ARRIVED, DIRECT FROM JAPAN, THE FINEST TEA EVER IN PAW PAW.

Being aware that most of the Tea now sold is impure and doctored, has led me to investigate and see if there was not some way to supply my customers with a Pure and unadulterated article. At last I have found it in UNITY TEA, imported by me, direct from Japan, in the Perfection Tea Can.

I WARRANT EVERY POUND!

To be Pure and Free from any coloring matter or deleterious substance. It has never come in contact with lead in any form, being cured by the Perfection Process and put up in a pressed tin can.

I shall sell this tea at the Low Price of Fifty Cents per Pound.

K. W. NOYES.

N. B.—Don't forget that I carry a full stock of All other goods in my line, which I shall sell at the Very Lowest Cash Prices.

Local Department.

Thanksgiving.
Where did you get that turkey?
Our Indian summer has been superb.

Local items are very scarce since election.
Frank Stearns returned home on Friday last.

Mr. S. Hurlbut has repainted his dwelling house on Main street.

Mrs. H. W. McCabe spent a part of last week in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Sadie Lindsey has been enjoying a sojourn with the mumps.

F. W. Peck, ex-sheriff of Kent county, is visiting the county jail.

Charley Cole and mother of Decatur, were visiting relatives here last week.

The first sleighbells of the season were heard on our streets last Tuesday.

John F. Clark, the Downage skater, captured the prize on the two-mile skating race.

The disciples held an enjoyable social at the residence of J. W. Ball last Tuesday evening.

Let up! We absolutely refuse to answer any more questions about that wheel barrow business.

A new bus line has been started, free to the Clifton House, 15 cents to any part of the city.

The NORTHERNER has a quantity of dry wood on hand which can be had at $1.50 per cord.

The disciples will hold a quarterly meeting at this place, on Friday and Saturday of this week.

The first quarterly meeting of this year will be held at the M. E. church next Saturday and Sunday.

In order to be sure the returns were properly delivered, County Clerk Heath carried them to Lansing in person.

Our old friend C. V. Smith, formerly of this place, is about to resume the editorship of the Centerville Republican.

Elder Reese of Bangor, will probably address the Union temperance meeting next Sunday, at the Disciple church.

Mr. E. Blackman retires from the Courier this week. He will go to Flint and take charge of the Democrat at that place.

Teachers' examination at Keeler this week Friday. It will be well to bear in mind that this is the last one until February 28th.

The Odd Fellows had an oyster supper last Monday evening at the residence of R.
A. Quick. A pleasant time is reported.

Mr. C. A. Sherrod has returned home after a protracted business trip through Ohio and Indiana. He will remain but a short time.

B. P. Heckert Esq. has been wrestling once more with his old enemy, the quincy, between which and Ben there is a perpetual feud.

Chicken pie social last Tuesday evening at the First Baptist church. No need to go hungry when you can get chicken pie for ten cents.

Miss Mamie Rowland will be at the office of Judge Hilton in the Kalamazoo section, Thursday, Dec. 4th, for the purpose of filling vouchers for pensioners.

The apple trade has closed for the season.
Van Auklen bought and shipped 4,000 barrels. Who was it remarked that the apple crop was a failure this year?

Thanksgiving services will be held in the morning at the Disciple church, Rev. L. B.
Fish officiating. Union prayer meeting at the Baptist church in the evening.

L. K. Holmes, Esq., of Pennsylvania, formerly of Bloomington, is spending a few weeks in this vicinity. Many old friends are glad to give Lyne a friendly shake.

Court has adjourned until Dec. 13th. The only case tried was the Ashley case. The other criminal causes went over the term on account of sickness of counsel and witnesses.

Those chaps in the cooler who recently broke jail and were recaptured, have since formed an intimate acquaintance with balls and chains and can't run as well as they used to.

Married, November 23d, 1884, by Jacob Hungerford Esq., at the residence of John Dodge in Waverly, Mr. Nathan McNeese of Columbia to Miss Bertha Clarey of Bloomington.

Van Buren county is maintaining ten indigent insane persons in the Kalamazoo section. The bill for their board, clothing, etc., for the quarter ending Oct. 31st amounted to $504.83.

The new addition to the county jail—kitchen and wood-shed—authorized by the board of supervisors, has been built. When Sheriff Todd enters upon his official duties he will find things in good shape.

Great game of polo at the rink Wednesday evening, Nov. 26th, between two noted Kalamazoo clubs—the Kalamazoo and the Alerie. This will be a new thing in Paw Paw, and, no doubt, will attract a large crowd.

The plurality for Charles J. Monroe for senator, in the 12th district, as canvassed by the returning board of the district is 2,036.
Van Buren 1,383, Allegan 653. This is a flattering and emphatic endorsement of an able and faithful public official.

Charles Ashley, the horse thief was tried and convicted in our circuit court last Monday. The judge sentenced him to the state prison for five years, and, in pronouncing the sentence, conspicuously remarked that he very much regretted that the law would not allow him to send him for a longer term.

Freight train No. 21 now carries passengers between Kalamazoo and New Buffalo, arriving at Lawton about half past five in the afternoon where it is met by a train on the narrow gauge. This makes it very convenient for our citizens who desire to visit Kalamazoo and return the same day.

The new time table of the M. C. R. R., which went into effect on the 16th inst., will be found in another column. Owing to the fact that the train from the east is half an hour later than formerly, the narrow gauge train is unable to make connection with the passenger train north at Hartford, as it has done heretofore.

Died, in this village on Thursday, Nov.
20th, 1884, of consumption, Charles Hunt, nephew of Wm. and Geo. Hunt and son of J. P. Hunt, formerly of this place. Deceased had long been a sufferer from the dire disease that finally carried him to his grave.
He was born in this village in 1847, being at the time of his death 37 years of age.

Our milliners and dressmakers were swindled by a fellow of fine address who came through here a few weeks ago taking subscriptions for a journal devoted to their interests. Nearly all of them subscribed but none of them received the publication. We hear of his operations in other places. The safest way is to pay no money to strangers.

Mr. W. C. Mackellar of this village, for some time past has been complaining of sleeplessness and trouble with his head, and has finally become deranged. Application was made on Monday last to have him placed in the asylum but they were so full that he could not be received. We hope his derangement may prove to be but temporary.

The many friends of our former townsman Robert Sellick, will grieve to learn that he is dead. He died at his residence in Lockport, N. Y., on Sunday evening last at seven o'clock, from congestion of the brain.
His brothers F. W. and W. J. left for that place on Tuesday last, to attend the funeral.
He was buried in Lockport, and his family will remain there.

Our hunters, Clum, Will and Charles have returned from the wilds of northern Michigan, where they have been making it lively for the fleet footed deer of that section.
They remained as long as the law would permit and were quite successful. They killed twelve deer, Clum getting six, the other half dozen being equally divided between C. H. and W. M.

On Wednesday evening of last week a number of persons made their appearance at the residence of Messrs. Brewer and Snodgrass, cleared the supper which was in readiness, and spread the table with an abundant of good things, of which they all preceded to partake. The evening was spent in sociable converse, and, though a complete surprise, was a very enjoyable affair.

Married, Saturday, Nov. 23d, 1884, by Rev. T. Brooks, at his residence in this village, Mr. Will C. Mosier of this place, to Miss Mertie R. Downing of Almena. The happy couple have gone to Marshall for a brief visit, but will be home in time for thanksgiving. They will each feel like returning thanks for manifold blessings, and we trust their married life may prove as prosperous and happy as each returning Thanksgiving day will find them more grateful than before.

The democrats at Bangor undertook to jolly last Thursday evening, but the attempt was a dismal failure. A few boys with torches comprised pretty much all there was of the affair. We remembered while the procession (7) was passing through the streets that we were present in the same village four years ago, when the election of Garfield was being celebrated, and could but mark the contrast. Then the whole town was brilliantly illuminated, everybody seemed to be interested, and an elegant time was had. Now nobody seemed to care to participate, no crowd was on the streets, and no interest was manifested. That was Garfield, this was Cleveland.

The Nine Peak Miners from Alaska.

These celebrated artists will give a concert at the First Baptist church next Tuesday evening, Dec. 2d. Their entertainments are highly entertaining and amusing. Come everybody and enjoy a hearty laugh. Doors open at 7. Admission 10 cents.

List of Letters

Remaining uncalled for in the Post Office at Paw Paw, Mich., for the week ending Nov. 26: Mrs. Mary Cummings, Mrs. Frankie Dayton, Dr. G. Gerow, Miss Jennie Gilbert, E. Meyer, Mr. Charles Villaburg, Mrs.
Watzen, W. S. Willis, Sumner Younglove.

Police Court.

Before Esq. Warner, Nov. 20th, Eugene Labadie of Decatur, Sylvester Myers of Paw Paw, and Arthur Williams of Mattawan.
Each charged with being drunk and there-forely at the democratic jubilee. Each fined $10 and costs or 20 days in jail. Labadie and Myers paid the bill, and Williams took the cooler.

Before Justice Rowland on Wednesday, Nov. 26th, Chas. H. Smith, charged with assault and battery at the democratic jollifica-tion. Assessed $10 and costs, or 10 days in jail. Fine and costs paid.

Lectures By Dr. Spinney.

Dr. A. B. Spinney of Detroit, gave our citizens, some eight years ago, a very fine course of lectures, and we have the pleasure of announcing that he is to favor us with another short course in Longwell's Opera House, commencing Saturday evening, Dec.
6th. The first three lectures will be free, and the subjects discussed will be: First evening, the causes of good health and disease, with an illustration of all the organs and functions of the body; catarrh, bronchitis, throat and lung diseases, cause and cure of consumption, how to have healthy lungs and avoid catarrh. Sunday evening, Dec. 7th, the royal path to happiness, how best to live that life may be brought joy and death have no terrors. Monday, Dec.
8th, the eye, ear and brain and nervous system, with directions how to save our eyes and ears and also how to preserve our nerve forces and avoid paralysis, etc. Tuesday evening, Dec. 9th, lecture upon marriage, paternity and home, one of the most truthful pictures of the causes of unhappy marriages and homes ever given. Admission 10 cents. Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons at 2 p. m., private lectures to ladies. Wednesday evening, private to gentlemen. Admission 25 cents. All the lectures illustrated by maps, manikins, skeletons, and skulls. Free consultation given at the Dyckman House from Dec. 6th until 12th.

William J. Sellick.

The gentleman whose name graces the head of this article was born in Scotland in 1839 and is now 45 years of age. He left the old country in 1857 and came to this country. Soon after he opened a mercantile business in Lawton, where he remained until 1861 when, in company with a brother-in-law, he entered into the wholesale grocery trade at Kalamazoo. Two years afterward he went to Detroit where he carried on the same business. In 1865 he came to Paw Paw, since which time the mercantile house of W. J. & R. Sellick has been a familiar acquaintance of all the citizens of Van Buren county. In the great fire of May 1866 the firm was burned out, but, with their well-known and indomitable energy, they continued their business and have long been recognized as one of the leading and most successful mercantile establishments in Western Michigan. Last April W. J. bought the interest of his brother Robert, since which time he has carried on the business alone.
He carries one of the largest and best stocks of dry goods and general merchandise to be found in our county, and his business ability and well-known reputation for honesty and fair dealing have secured and retained a host of customers. He believes in advertising and always keeps his patrons informed of his attractive bargains through the columns of the newspapers. He occasionally takes a voyage across the sea to visit the friends of his younger days in bonnie Scotland. Politically he is a republican, but not a strong partisan. He is well educated, a fine conversationalist, a social, whole-souled, good fellow, delights in reading the songs of Bobby Burns and other Scottish literature, has hosts of warm friends, some enemies, of course, as all men who amount to anything do have, but is highly respected and best liked where best known.

Mr. G. L. Yapple, while monkeying with a plow in September last, received injuries from which he has not recovered.—St. Jo.
Advertiser.

James G. Blaine will live in history as the compeer of Daniel Webster and Henry Clay.
They will rank for centuries come as the grandest trio of American statesmen who were destined not to be presidents. After all, it is better to rank in history as a great statesman than a small, mediocre president.
—Charlotte Republican.

The family of Lawrence and Hattie Drake, living in the south part of this township, have been very sadly afflicted this fall.
About two weeks ago they lost a young child by typhoid fever, and last Saturday morning their oldest child, Winnie, a girl of six years, died of the same disease. Mr. Drake and the only remaining child are both dangerously ill with the fever. The funeral of the little daughter was held on Monday, Rev. S.
Smith of Bangor, officiating.—Bangor Reflector.
